PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Schneur Z. Oirechman, Director of Chabad Lubavitch, Tallahassee:

Almighty God, master of the universe, as we move into a fresh new season, let us spring ahead into a world of hope and possibility, and let our winter of lethargy fall behind.

As we begin Nissan, the Jewish Month of Redemption from Egyptian slavery, the month of Passover, bless us with freedom from modern slavery: enslavement to our habits, captivity to inside-the-box thinking about our challenges, and servitude to our worries.

Almighty God, grant us redemption: redemption from the habits, reflexive thinking, and worries that betray our better selves, and may our enslavement to these false prisoners be replaced with the spiritual energy of hope.

Bless us this month with spiritual freedom and the wisdom and capacity to channel that freedom into results for the people of Florida. Bless the honorable members of the Senate and its honorable President,

Don Gaetz. May they work together for the greatest good of all Floridians. May they break all barriers that would divide them, overcome all obstacles that would stop them, and may they actualize the truest meaning of freedom in their lives and the lives of those they serve.

Almighty creator, let us always remember that “redemption” is not a quaint legend from an old book that happened in a different time to a different nation, but a cornerstone of our spiritual lives today—a very real model for our personal struggle to become better people. Bless us with an escape from the slavery of our own personal Egypt and narrow thinking today, and may we all be blessed as witnesses of the redemption of the entire universe speedily in our days, and let us say, Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages Zachary Solloway of Lake Worth; Joseph LaFauci of Brandon; Matthew Detert of North Port, grandson of Senator Detert; Stephanie Detert of Venice, granddaughter of Senator Detert; and Grace Beatty of Fort Myers led the Senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.
